DUBAI:

Dinner in the Sky Experience

A 90-Minute First Class Flight with the Dinner in the Sky in Dubai

You set out from Dubai Marina close to the coast with a skilled crew. You can savor a few delicacies from the 5-star luxury hotels LE MERIDIEN and THE WESTIN at a height of 50 meters. You can enjoy the first-rate service while sitting safely and pleasantly in an armchair on the floating platform. The Dinner in the Sky is among the top ten restaurants in the world according to FORBES, and not without reason.

The platform rotates gently while in flight. This provides you with a 360-degree view of the Dubai Marina skyline, the Palm Jumeirah, and the stunning Ain Dubai observation wheel on the brand-new island of Bluewaters.

You'll also get a first look at the soon-to-be-built Dubai Harbour, which will be situated quite close to Dinner in the Sky and feature three marinas centered on the Dubai Lighthouse.

The skydiving airport is close to the Dinner in the Sky location. Occasionally, an airplane carrying parachutists will pass over this area.

The ability of their own armchairs to swivel is something that vertigo-free people will also appreciate. You can rotate around your own axis and let your feet hang in the air using this feature. Yet even people who are afraid of heights can unwind on board with the Dinner in the Sky.

Six Flights - Three Meals - Countless Combination Possibilities

Customers have the option to fly for lunch and afternoon tea in addition to supper, which goes against what one might think given the name "Dinner."

A Culinary Experience at Any Time of Day

Six times a day, there is Supper in the Sky. Passengers can choose from a menu for lunch (2 flights), in the afternoon (1 flight, somewhat less expensive), or for supper (3 flights). Every flight is 90 minutes long.

The Menu Offer of the Dinner in the Sky in Dubai

Depending on the meal, there is a wide variety of high-quality meat and fish entrees, vegetarian dishes, and sweet treats available. The 5-star hotels THE WESTIN and LE MERIDIEN prepare the dishes. They are not far away.

Customers select from a selection of items that can be combined to build a multi-course menu when booking a lunch or dinner. There are numerous starters, entrées, and desserts available for lunch and evening. Exclusive sandwiches and opulent pastries are offered on the afternoon menu.

The dinner is served with a selection of soft drinks and non-alcoholic beverages. Following is coffee or tea (all-inclusive, no additional fees).

On the Dinner in the Sky website, you can always locate the actual dishes.
